When you remember Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in your will, you leave a lasting legacy to your values as you help continue our work far into the future.

Why Include a Charitable Gift in Your Will?

1. It's simple to do. It can be as easy as including language stating, "I give ten percent of the net value of my estate to Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences."
2. You can change your mind. We won't receive the gift until after your death. During your lifetime, you can amend anything you choose, i.e., beneficiaries, amounts, etc.

4. It's an easy way to support Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences, and we'd be grateful for your gift. Bequests of every size build our future financial strength.

How you include a gift in your will or revocable trust depends on what you want to accomplish, and what you want to give to Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences. Here are some options:

1. Give a percentage of your estate — e.g., "I give 25% of the net value of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes to Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences."
2. Give a percentage of the residue of your estate — the amount left after specific bequests have been given to individuals and organizations; e.g., "I give 25% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences."
3. Give a specific dollar amount or item of property; e.g., "I give Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences $25,000" or "I give Albany College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences 100 shares of IBM stock."
